Digital Assets

Your Attorney and Personal Representative will need access to your digital assets. We recommend compiling a list (including login and passwords) for computers, email accounts, digital files (music, pictures, etc.), online banking websites, social media websites, e-commerce websites (Ebay, Paypal, etc.) and keep this list with your Enduring Power of Attorney and Will. There are also "apps" (websites and computer programs) you can use to store user names and passwords. Alternatively, we would be pleased to store information you provide regarding your digital assets and we can make this information available to your Attorney and Personal Representative upon request.

WILLS WORKSHEET

Personal Representative

In a Will, you appoint a Personal Representative to administer your Estate (used to be Executor). We suggest you consider appointing a sole person as your Personal Representative because persons appointed jointly as your Personal Representative will have to agree on all decisions and this can cause frustration, stress and delay in the administration of your Estate.

Disposition of a Deceased Beneficiary's Share

How do you want to distribute a gift to a beneficiary who dies before they receive their share?
The remaining beneficiaries
Equally among the children of a deceased beneficiary and then to the remaining beneficiaries

Power of Encroachment

A Power of Encroachment gives your Personal Representative the power to advance part of a beneficiary's share before they reach the age for distribution. You can give your Personal Representative one or both of the following powers.
For the beneficiary's maintenance, education, benefit and advancement in life
To relieve the care-givers of your minor children for the additional financial burdens that come from caring for them

Age for Distribution

What age would you like the beneficiaries of your Estate to receive their shares:

Their entire share at 18

One half at 23 and the rest at 27

Their entire share at 21

One third at 21 and the rest at 25

Their entire share at 25

Enduring Power of Attorney Trigger
How would you like your Enduring Power of Attorney to come into effect?
Note: Your Attorney is the person you appoint (above), not Turning Point Law
Immediate	The Enduring Power of Attorney comes into effect immediately and continues to be in effect if you subsequently become incapacitated and are unable to manage your finances. This is for people who want their Attorney to assist them to manage their finances while they have capacity and take over the management of their finances if they lose capacity.
Springing	The Enduring Power of Attorney comes into effect when your Attorney and treating physician agree that you are incapacitated and unable to manage your finances. This allows your Attorney to take over management of your finances if your Attorney and a doctor agree that you have lost capacity (but not while you have capacity).
Springing	The Enduring Power of Attorney comes into effect when 2 physicians agree that you are incapacitated and unable to manage your finances. This allows your Attorney to take over management of your finances if two doctors agree that you have lost capacity (but not while you have capacity).

Accounting

You can give an interested party the right to access information about how your Attorney is managing your finances. Who would you like to be able to request a list of your assets, debts and transactions that have occurred from your Attorney?

Nobody

All children

Specific persons (please list):

Compensation

Attorneys are entitled to be reimbursed for reasonable costs, disbursements, other charges and out-of-pocket expenses. Did you also want to pay your Attorney a fee for administering your Estate?

No Compensation

2.5% of the money received and payments made by the Attorney on your behalf

An hourly fee of $

PERSONAL DIRECTIVES WORKSHEET

Agent

In a Personal Directive, you appoint an Agent to make decisions relating to your non-financial matters when you are incapacitated (e.g., healthcare). We suggest you consider appointing a sole person as your Agent because persons appointed jointly will have to agree on all decisions and this can cause frustration, stress and delay.

Do you want to appoint the same person(s) you appointed as your Personal Representative?

Yes
No

If you do not want to appoint the same person(s) as your Personal Representative, please provide the following:

Long Term Care Decisions

Our Personal Directive directs your Agent to make decisions based on their knowledge of your wishes, beliefs and values. In order to give your Agent some direction, please check the statements below that reflect your wishes:

I want to be consulted to the extent that it is feasible and in my best interests.	Yes No
I want care that enables me to remain as independent as possible, gives me comfort and support, facilitates my interaction with others, and relieves my pain and distress.	Yes No
I want regular personal contact with my family and friends who support me.	Yes No
I want to stay at home for as long as practical.	Yes No
I want my Agent to be able to implement and/or update a Goals of Care Designation Order.	Yes No
If I must receive institutional care, I prefer: A Reasonable care within my resources, provided that I am comfortable. B The best possible care, it is acceptable to deplete my resources so I have no Estate when I die.	A B

End of Life Decisions

I want my Agent to be able to donate my organs, tissues and byproducts for transplantation.	Yes No
If I am in severe pain or distress, I want my Agent to be able to consent to the administration of drugs to relieve my pain and distress, even if it will hasten my death.	Yes No
If I have a grievous and irremediable medical condition, I want my Agent to be able to consent to treatments that enable me to recover sufficient capacity to consent to medical assistance in dying.	Yes No
If I reach a stage where I am not expected to regain the mental capacity to make my own decisions: A I do not want my life prolonged at all costs. I do not want treatments that are intended primarily to prolong my life without improving the chances for cure or reversal of my condition. Further, I want my Agent to be able to consent to reductions in the intensity of medical intervention and I want to receive comfort care, including surgery and drugs, to relieve pain and reduce distress. B I want to live as long as possible. I want all available treatments to extend my life for as long as possible, including surgery, medications, CPR, ventilators, dialysis and tube feeding.	A B

Living Will

I want my Agent to be able to refuse, withhold or withdraw treatment to permit my life to come to its end if a) My death is imminent if treatment is not commenced or continued, b) There is no reasonable medical expectation of recovery and c) I have lost the ability to interact with others and have no reasonable chance of regaining that ability.	Yes No
If Yes, how do you want your Agent to make the decision (after consultation with the treating physician):
Agent alone	after consulting with the person(s) below (who are available)
after consulting with children (who are available)	with the consent of the person(s) below (who are available)
